OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1877.

portion of the railroad of said company, which shall hereafter be constructed under the original charter of said company and the amendments thereof, and under the extension of time for completing said road, granted by an act entitled, "an act to extend the time for the completion of the Bangor and Piscataquis Railroad," approved February seventeen, eighteen hundred and seventy-six. Provided, however, this act shall not take effect or be in force until it has been submitted to a vote of the legal voters of the city of Bangor, in the manner prescribed in section fourteen of said act approved February twenty-two, eighteen hundred and seventy-one. But if, within two years from the approval of this act, said city shall accept the same, as prescribed in said section, then this act shall be in force thereafter.

CHAP. 382.

Proviso.

SECT. 3. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved February 7, 1877.

Chapter 382.

An act giving authority to the city of Portland, in relation to certain railroads.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

The city council of Portland is authorized to sell any or all the interests of the city of Portland in the stocks, bonds, obligations or mortgages of any railroad corporations, now held by the city, on such terms as said council may determine, and is authorized to unite upon such terms as said council may approve, in any plan or plans for reorganizing the Portland and Ogdensburg Railroad Company, or the Portland and Rochester Railroad Company, or for making available the interests of the city in the stock, bonds, obligations or mortgages of either of said corporations, provided, nothing herein contained shall authorize incurring any executory obligation or liability, direct or indirect, contingent or absolute, in behalf of said city.

City of Portland authorized to sell interest in stocks, bonds, &c., of railroad corporations.

Proviso.

Approved February 7, 1877.
