PUBLIC LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1881.

CHAP. 80.

Chapter 80.

An act relating to levy of execution on Real Estate.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Real estate and right to cut timber and grass, may be taken on execution and sold.

SECT. 1. Real estate attachable, including the right to cut timber and grass, as described in chapter eighty-one of the revised statutes, may be taken on execution and sold, in the same manner as rights of redeeming real estate mortgaged, are taken on execution and sold; and the debtor shall have the same right of redemption from such sale.

Right and interest of debtor shall pass to purchaser, subject to redemption.

SECT. 2. Such seizure and sale, if made according to law, shall pass to the purchaser at such sale, all the right, title or interest the execution debtor has in such real estate at the time of such seizure, or had at the time of the attachment thereof on the original writ, subject to the debtor's right of redemption as provided by law.

Present modes, not repealed.

SECT. 3. This act shall not be construed as repealing any present modes of levy of execution.

Approved March 16, 1881.

Chapter 81.

An act providing for an additional session of the County Commissioners in Oxford County.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Additional session of commissioners of Oxford county.

In addition to the regular sessions of the county commissioners of Oxford county, now provided by law, there shall be an additional session, to be held at Paris in said county on the last Tuesday of December in each year.

Approved March 16, 1881.
