Chapter 156.

An act to incorporate the Sullivan Waukeag Mining Company.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Corporators.

SECT. 1. Joseph D. Prescott, John Shoenbar, Samuel L. Symonds and Gustavus S. Fernald, their associates, successors and assigns are hereby created a body politic and corporate, by the name of the Sullivan Waukeag Mining Company, with all the rights and privileges, and subject to all the duties provided by the general laws of this state, relating to corporations, with power by that name to sue and be sued, to have and use a common seal, to establish all by-laws and regulations for the management of its affairs not repugnant to the laws of this state, and to do any and all lawful acts incident to similar corporations.

Corporate name, privileges and duties.

Authorized to carry on mining business and purchase property of certain companies.

SECT. 2. Said corporation is hereby authorized to carry on the business of mining, quarrying, milling and smelting minerals and ores, in the town of Sullivan, county of Hancock, state of Maine, buying, selling and transporting the same, and to purchase, own, hold, buy, sell and deal in any and all property whatsoever, real and personal, necessary for, or incidental to such business, and the management thereof, and shall purchase from the Sullivan Silver Mining Company, the Waukeag Silver Mining Company, and the Sullivan and Waukeag Mining Company, or of any individuals holding property in trust for said corporations, all the property and rights owned by said corporations, or so held in trust for them.

Capital stock.

SECT. 3. The capital stock of said corporation shall be one million dollars, divided into shares of five dollars each, and shall be un-assessable.

First meeting, how called.

SECT. 4. Any three of the corporators named herein, are hereby empowered to call the first meeting of said corporation, by giving such notice as they may think proper, at which meeting any corporate business may be transacted. At said meeting, and afterwards at the annual meeting, said corporation shall elect by ballot, a president, secretary, assistant secretary, treasurer, five or seven directors, as may be desired, and any other officers deemed necessary. The powers and duties of all the officers may be fixed by the by-laws, and they shall continue in office until the next
