CHAP. 153

An Act to establish the salary of the Clerk of the Supreme Judicial Court for Somerset County.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

That so much of section five of chapter one hundred and fifty of the public laws of eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, as relates to the salary of the clerk of the supreme judicial court for Somerset county, is hereby repealed, and the salary of said clerk is hereby established at and restored to what it was before the passage of said section of said act.

Salary of clerk of courts for Somerset county, restored.

Approved February 28, 1883.

Chapter 154.

An Act to prevent deception in sales of butter and cheese.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. Whoever, by himself or his agents, shall sell, expose for sale or have in his possession with intent to sell, any article, substance or compound, made in imitation or semblance of butter, or as a substitute for butter, and not made exclusively and wholly of milk or cream, or containing any fats, oils or grease not produced from milk or cream, shall have the words, adulterated butter, or if such substitute is the compound known as oleomargarine, then the word, oleomargarine, stamped, labeled or marked, in printed letters of plain roman type not less than one inch in length so that said word cannot be easily defaced, upon the top and side of every tub, firkin, box or package containing any of said articles, substance or compound. And in case of retail sales of any of said articles, substance or compound not in the original packages, the seller, by himself or his agents, shall attach to each package so sold at retail, and deliver with said package to the purchaser, a label or wrapper bearing in a conspicuous place upon the outside of said package the words, adulterated butter, or the word, oleomargarine, as herein provided, in printed letters of plain roman type not less than one-half inch in length.

Sale of adulterated butter and oleomargarine, regulated.
