Chapter 298.

An Act to amend section fifty-four of chapter seventy of the Revised Statutes relating to secreting property with intent to Defraud Creditors.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Section fifty-four of chapter seventy of the revised statutes is hereby amended so as to read as follows :

Sec. 54, ch. 70, R. S., amended.

Penalty for disposal of property to defraud creditors.

'SECT. 54. If a debtor, after the filing of a petition, by or against him, or within four months before, sells, removes, secretes or conceals any property, money or effects belonging to his estate, or any books, papers, documents or writings relating thereto, or in any manner disposes of any part of his estate, with a view to defraud his creditors, and evade the provisions of the insolvent law, or to prevent the same from coming to the hands of his assignee, except such as may reasonably be expended for the support of himself and family, not exceeding the amount specified in the preceding section, he shall be punished by imprisonment in jail not more than one year, or by fine of not more than five hundred dollars.'

Approved March 3, 1885.
