Chapter 68.

An Act to amend chapter two hundred and sixty-two of the Public Laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-five, relative to the protection of Fish.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Section one of chapter two hundred sixty-two of the public laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-five, is hereby amended by striking out all before the word "as," in the fifth line, and inserting in lieu thereof the following words: 'It shall be the duty of all persons who are now or may hereafter derive special benefits from legislation for the protection of fish, in any of the waters of this state, in excess of what is, or may be derived by others, to publish such protection by posting and maintaining notices substantially,' so that said section as amended, shall read as follows :

Sec. 1, ch. 262, public laws of 1885, amended.

'SECT. 1. It shall be the duty of all persons who are now or may hereafter derive special benefits from legislation for the protection of fish in any waters of this state, in excess of what is or may be derived by others, to publish such protection by posting and maintaining notices substantially as hereinafter provided. Said notices shall be placed on the banks or shores of such protected waters, not more than ten feet, nor less than six feet, above the ground, in a conspicuous position; and if on running water, such notices shall be not more than one-half mile apart on the banks of such waters; and if on a pond or lake, not more than one mile apart on the shores of such pond or lake.'

Protection of fish by special legislation, to be published by posting notices on banks of protected waters.

—manner of posting.

Approved March 7, 1887.
