tion, to be fixed by the superintending school committee or committees having supervision of the same, as is equivalent to the cost a scholar of maintaining such school, after deducting the aid extended by the state. Whenever in the judgment of the superintending school committees having the supervision of any free high school or schools, the number of pupils in the same may be increased without detriment, scholars from without the towns, directly interested in such school or schools, may be admitted to the same on passing the required examination and paying such tuition as may be fixed by such committee, to the treasurer of the town in which the school is kept, when the school is maintained by a town or union of towns, or to the agent of the district in which the school is kept, where such school is maintained by a district or union of districts.'

—school committees may admit pupils from without town, on payment of tuition.

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 11, 1887.

Chapter 101.

An Act in relation to Paupers in unincorporated places.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Whenever persons who have no legal settlement within the state, are found in unincorporated places, and needing immediate relief, and are brought into any adjoining town obliged by law to care for and furnish relief to such persons, and relief is so furnished, the state shall reimburse said town for such relief so furnished, in the same manner and under the same restrictions as provided in section twenty-nine, chapter twenty-four of the revised statutes, as amended, although the overseers of the poor of said town have no permit in writing from the governor and council to remove the same into their town.

State shall reimburse towns furnishing relief to state paupers.

Approved March 11, 1887.
