An Act to carry into effect an act of Congress entitled "An Act to establish Agricultural Experiment Stations in connection with colleges in the several states."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

SECT. 1. For the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of an act of the congress of the United States, approved March two, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, to establish agricultural experiment stations in connection with the colleges established in the several states, under the provisions of an act approved July two, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, and of the acts supplementary thereto, the state hereby assents to the purposes of said grants and accepts the grants of money authorized and appropriated by said first named act approved March two, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, and assigns the same to the Maine State College of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts, and there is hereby established at said college in connection therewith, and under its direction, a department to be known and designated as the Maine Agricultural Experiment Station.

SECT. 2. The act of the legislature of this state, approved March three, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, establishing the Maine Fertilizer Control and Agricultural Experiment Station, is hereby repealed, this repeal to take effect October one, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven.

Grants of congress, in aid of establishing an agricultural experiment station, accepted by the state.

—station established.

Act establishing Maine Fertilizer Control and Agricultural Experiment Station, repealed.

CHAP. 120

SECT. 3. All apparatus, chemicals and other property belonging to said station, and the unexpended balance of money in the state treasury appropriated by the state to said station, for the year eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, shall, on October one, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, be transferred and paid to and become the property of the Maine State College of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts, and the treasurer thereof shall receipt for the property so transferred by the board of managers of said experiment station, and the unexpended balance so paid over by the treasurer of state.

Property of station, transferred to agricultural college.

Approved March 16, 1887.

Chapter 120.

An Act relating to the use of Railroad Passenger Stations.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. Whenever any railroad passenger station shall be erected or maintained in any city or town in this state, any railroad corporation having or using a track or passenger station within such city or town, shall have the right to run its passenger trains to and from such station, over any railroad track or tracks leading thereto as herein provided, and to use the same for the purpose of delivering and receiving through passengers, under such reasonable terms and regulations, and over such tracks as may be agreed upon by the owner of such station, the railroad whose tracks are used in running to and from the same, and the railroad corporation so desiring its use for said purpose, and in case of disagreement, upon petition, notice and hearing thereon, the railroad commissioners shall fix and determine such terms, tracks and regulations. No corporation which shall deny, in any proceedings, the authority of the railroad commissioners to proceed and make the determination as herein provided, or which shall refuse to abide by their decision rendered therein, shall avail itself of the provisions of this act.

Use of railroad passenger stations, regulated.

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 16, 1887.
