Chapter 120.

An Act relating to the use of Railroad Passenger Stations.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. Whenever any railroad passenger station shall be erected or maintained in any city or town in this state, any railroad corporation having or using a track or passenger station within such city or town, shall have the right to run its passenger trains to and from such station, over any railroad track or tracks leading thereto as herein provided, and to use the same for the purpose of delivering and receiving through passengers, under such reasonable terms and regulations, and over such tracks as may be agreed upon by the owner of such station, the railroad whose tracks are used in running to and from the same, and the railroad corporation so desiring its use for said purpose, and in case of disagreement, upon petition, notice and hearing thereon, the railroad commissioners shall fix and determine such terms, tracks and regulations. No corporation which shall deny, in any proceedings, the authority of the railroad commissioners to proceed and make the determination as herein provided, or which shall refuse to abide by their decision rendered therein, shall avail itself of the provisions of this act.

Use of railroad passenger stations, regulated.

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 16, 1887.
