CHAP. 254

Chapter 254.

An Act to cede to the United States of America jurisdiction over certain lands.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

That there be and hereby is ceded to the United States of America the jurisdiction over the following described parcels of land : First, beginning at the Western Bar Beacon, as located on the United States Coast Survey Chart number three, scale one eighty thousandth, edition of eighteen hundred and eighty-three, and described on page twenty-four of the Atlantic Coast Pilot, second edition, eighteen hundred and seventy-nine, and running thence north nineteen degrees and nineteen minutes west fifteen hundred feet ; thence south seventy degrees and forty-one minutes west two hundred and ninety feet ; thence south nineteen degrees and nineteen minutes east fifteen hundred feet ; thence north seventy degrees and forty-one minutes east two hundred and ninety feet to the point of beginning, and embracing nine acres and forty-two thousand nine hundred and sixty square feet ; the said area being wholly submerged by the tides and all lying more than one hundred rods from the lowest high water line at Lubec Narrows in Quoddy roads in the state of Maine. Second, the ledge of rock known and described on page one hundred and twenty-nine of the Atlantic Coast Pilot, second edition, eighteen hundred and seventy-nine as Crabtree Point Ledge, and lying about six feet below the surface of extreme low water in Frenchman's Bay, about five hundred feet east from the shore of Crabtree's Neck in Hancock county, Maine, the area of the ledge being about one acre. Provided, however, that this cession of jurisdiction is granted and made upon the express condition, that the state of Maine shall retain a concurrent jurisdiction with the United States in and over said tracts of land and every portion thereof, so far, that all process, civil or criminal, issuing under the authority of said state, or any officers thereof, may be executed by the proper officers thereof, upon any Chapter 255.

An Act to amend section two of chapter four hundred and forty-five of the Private and Special Laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-five, entitled "An Act to incorporate the People's Trust Company."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Sec. 2, ch. 445,
Private Laws of 1885, amended.

Section two of chapter four hundred and forty-five of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-five is hereby amended, by striking out after the word "money" in the fifth line, the words "one third" and inserting in the place thereof, the words 'two thirds,' so that said section as amended, shall read as follows :

Reserve fund
shall be in lawful money.

'SECT. 2. Said corporation shall at all times, have on hand in lawful money and United States bonds, as a reserve, not less than twenty-five per cent of the aggregate amount of all its deposits, which are subject to withdrawal on demand, provided, in lieu of lawful money, two-thirds of said twenty-five per cent may consist of balances, payable on demand, due from any national or state bank.'

—proviso.

Approved March 12, 1887.
