property in his possession, may enforce it by sale thereof, as hereinafter provided.'

Approved February 5, 1889.

Chapter 169.

An Act to amend an act entitled "An Act creating certain islands in the town of Cumberland into a voting district."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Sec. 4, ch. 36,
Public Laws of 1887 amended.

The fourth section of said act is hereby amended by adding thereto the following: 'the list for said island district shall be posted in some public and conspicuous place in said district. In addition to the sessions now required by law, the selectmen shall be in open session on the two secular days next preceding any election to which this act applies, for the purpose of receiving applications of residents in said island district, claiming a right to vote therein; and notice of the time and place of such sessions shall be given in the warrant for calling the meeting in said district; and at such sessions the selectmen shall be governed by the provisions of chapter four of the Revised Statutes, so far as applicable.' So that said section as amended, shall read as follows:

Selectmen shall prepare lists of voters.

'SECT. 4. The assessors and selectmen shall prepare separate lists of qualified voters for said island district and the remainder of the town, and all provisions of law relating to the preparation and posting of such lists in towns, apply to both lists herein provided for, except that no changes shall be made in the list for the island district on the day of election. The list for said island district shall be posted in some public and conspicuous place in said district. In addition to the sessions now required by law, the selectmen shall be in open session on the two secular days next preceding any election to which this act applies, for the purpose of receiving applications of residents in said island district, claiming a right to vote therein; notice of the time and place of such sessions shall be given in the warrant for calling the meeting in said district; and at such sessions the selectmen shall be governed by the provisions of chapter four of the Revised Statutes, so far as applicable.'

—shall be in open session
two days before any election.

Approved February 5, 1889.
