Chapter 184.

An Act to amend Section fifteen of Chapter one hundred and forty of the Revised Statutes, relating to deduction from convicts' sentences for good conduct.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section fifteen of chapter one hundred and forty of the Revised Statutes is hereby amended, so as to read as follows:

'SECT. 15. He shall keep a record of the conduct of each convict, and for every month, during which it thereby appears that such convict has faithfully observed all the rules and requirements of the prison, the warden may recommend to the executive, a deduction of seven days from the term of said convicts' sentence, except those sentenced to imprisonment for life. Provided, however, that this act shall not be construed as lessening the deduction, to which any convict under sentence when it takes effect, would otherwise be entitled.'

Sec. 15, ch. 140, R. S. amended.

Warden shall keep a record of each convict's conduct, and recommend a deduction of sentence.

—proviso.

Approved February 14, 1889.

--further amended.

Section eleven of chapter fifty-eight, Revised Statutes, is hereby amended, by striking out the first nine lines and inserting the following. 'There shall be appropriated annually from the state treasury, a sum of money not exceeding one cent to each inhabitant of the state, which shall be divided among the legally incorporated agricultural societies of the state not provided for by special enactment, according to the amount of premiums and gratuities awarded by said societies ; provided, that no society shall receive from the state a sum greater than that actually raised and paid by the societies for said purposes.' This section is further amended by striking out all between the word "dollars" in the fourteenth line and "societies" in the sixteenth line, and all after the word "dollars" in the eighteenth line, so that said section as amended, shall read as follows :

State treasurer
to pay to so. ie-
ties not provided for by special law amount in proportion to premiums
awarded.
