CHAP. 213

School committees may admit pupils from without town, on payment of tuition.

extended by the state. Whenever, in the judgment of the superintending school committees having the supervision of any free high school or schools, the number of pupils in the same may be increased without detriment, scholars from without the towns directly interested in such school or schools, may be admitted to the same, on passing the required examination, and paying such tuition as may be fixed by such committee, to the treasurer of the town in which the school is kept, when the school is maintained by a town or union of towns, or to the agent of the district in which the school is kept, where such school is maintained by a district or union of districts.'

Approved February 23, 1889.

Chapter 213.

An Act to provide against the danger of the spread of Small Pox from paper mills.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Supt. of paper mills shall not employ any person not successfully vaccinated.

SECT. 1. No owner, agent, or superintendent of any paper mill where domestic or foreign rags are used in the manufacturing of paper shall hire or admit any person to work in or about said mill who has not been successfully vaccinated or re-vaccinated within two years, or to the satisfaction of the local board of health.

Persons not successfully vaccinated shall not work in paper mill.

SECT. 2. No person shall work in or about any paper mill where rags are used, who has not been successfully vaccinated or re-vaccinated within two years, or to the satisfaction of the local board of health.

List of employes shall be furnished local board of health, semi-annually.

SECT. 3. The owner, agent and superintendent in every paper mill where rags are used shall every year, in the months of February and September, make out and deliver to the local board of health, a list containing the names, ages, kind of work, and places of residence of all persons employed in or about said mill.

Employes shall be examined semi-annually.

SECT. 4. In the months of March and October, annually, each and every person who is employed in a paper mill, shall be examined by the local board of health as to whether he or she is successfully and sufficiently protected by vaccination, and the local board of health shall in all cases be the judges of the sufficiency of the protection by vaccination.

SECT. 5. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not more than fifty dollars.

CHAP. 214

Penalty for violation.

SECT. 6. It shall be the duty of the local boards of health within their respective jurisdictions and of the state board of health, to enforce this act as far as comes within their power, and when said state board of health knows or has reason to believe that any penalty or forfeiture has been incurred by reason of neglect to comply with said act, it shall, at its discretion, give notice thereof, in writing, to the county attorney of the county in which said penalty or forfeiture has occurred, and upon receipt of such notice the county attorney shall prosecute the defaulting person or persons.

Enforcement of act.

Approved February 23, 1889.

Chapter 214.

An Act to amend section one of Chapter seventy-five of Revised Statutes, relating to the descent of Real Estate.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Clause two of section one of chapter seventy-five of the Revised Statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto the words, "and mother in equal shares"; so that such clause as amended, shall read as follows :

Clause 2, sec. 1, ch. 75, R. S. amended.

'II. If no such issue, it descends to his father and mother in equal shares.'

Father and mother.

SECT. 2. Clause three of the same section is hereby amended by inserting after the word "descends," in the first line, the words, 'one-half to his mother and the remainder,' and striking out the word "mother" in the second line; so that said clause as amended, shall read as follows :

Clause 3, amended.

'III. If no such issue or father, it descends one-half to his mother and the remainder in equal shares to his brothers and sisters, and when a brother or sister has died, to his or her children or grandchildren by right of representation.'

Mother, brother and sister.

Approved February 23, 1889.
