Chapter 218.

An Act to amend Chapter sixty-three of the Public Laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, entitled "An Act to amend section forty-three of Chapter seventy of the Revised Statutes, relating to Insolvent Debtors."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Section one of chapter sixty-three of the public laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-seven is hereby amended by adding thereto the following words, 'whenever in any case the debtor fails to take the oath prescribed in the forty-third section of chapter seventy of the Revised Statutes within the time herein limited therefor, all proceedings in insolvency may be dismissed upon motion of any party interested, after such notice as the judge shall order,' so that said section as amended, shall read as follows :

Sec. 1, ch. 63,
Public Laws of 1887, amended.

'SECT. 1. When for any cause the debtor shall fail to take and subscribe the oath referred to in the forty-third section of chapter seventy of the Revised Statutes, he may do so at any time within two years from the date of commencement of proceedings, with the same effect as if originally taken ; whenever in any case the debtor fails to take the oath prescribed in the forty-third section of chapter seventy of the Revised Statutes within the time herein limited therefor, all proceedings in insolvency may be dismissed upon motion of any party interested, after such notice as the judge shall order.'

Oath may be taken at any time within two years from commencement of proceedings.

—proceedings may be dismissed if debtor fails to take oath.

Approved February 26, 1889.
