PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE.

1889.

CHAP. 224

hereby amended by striking out the words "either" and "or" in the ninth line thereof and the word "traverse" in the tenth line thereof, and by inserting after the word "jury" in the tenth line, the words, 'and with only one traverse jury in attendance,' so that said section as amended, shall read as follows :

Time of holding terms of S. J. Court, in Oxford county, changed.

‘SECT. 1. After the first day of April in the present year, the supreme judicial court, within and for the county of Oxford, shall be holden at Paris, in said county, on the second Tuesday of October and on the second Tuesday of February, annually, instead of at the times as now provided by law.

Additional term provided for.

And in addition to the above named terms, the same court shall be held annually hereafter, by one of the justices thereof, at said Paris, on the first Tuesday of May, which last named term shall be held without grand jury, and with only one traverse jury in attendance, unless otherwise specially ordered by any judge of said court. All recognizances and other criminal processes, made returnable to, and to have day in said May term, when no criminal business is transacted, shall be continued to, and have day in the next term of said court, held in said county.’

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved February 26, 1889.
