Chapter 225.

An Act to amend Section ninety-eight of Chapter eleven of Revised Statutes, relating to forfeitures for Teaching without a Certificate.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Section ninety-eight of chapter eleven of the Revised Statutes is hereby amended, by inserting after the word "district" in the first line the words, 'or town,' and by adding to said section the following words: 'provided, that any town may, by vote, on an article in the warrant calling any legal meeting, employ its supervisor to instruct any of its schools and fix his compensation therefor. In such case the certificate hereinbefore mentioned shall not be required,' so that said section as amended, shall read as follows :

Sec. 98, ch 11,
R. S. amended.

SECT. 98. Whoever teaches a district or town school without first obtaining a certificate from the school committee of the town, forfeits not exceeding the sum contracted for his daily wages, for each day he so teaches, and is barred from receiving pay therefor; and no certificate shall be valid for more than one year, without the approval of the superintending school committee annually indorsed thereon; provided, that any town may, by vote, on an article in the warrant calling any legal meeting, employ its supervisor to instruct any of its schools and fix his compensation therefor. In such case the certificate hereinbefore mentioned shall not be required.'

Forfeitures for teaching without certificate.
