CHAP. 230

—if any sum is not claimed, it shall be deposited in some savings bank.

decree of the probate court to be paid over, remains for six months unclaimed, the executor, administrator, guardian or trustee who was ordered to pay over the same, may deposit it in some savings bank or other like institution, as the probate court directs, to accumulate for the benefit of the person entitled thereto. Such deposit shall be made in the name of the judge of probate for the time being, and shall be subject to the order of the judge and his successors in office, as hereinafter provided. The person making the deposit shall file in the probate court a statement thereof under oath, with the original evidence of such deposit, which shall be allowed as a sufficient voucher for such payment. When the person entitled to the money deposited, satisfies the judge of his right to receive the same, the judge shall cause it to be paid over to him.'

Approved February 28, 1889.

Chapter 230.

An Act to amend Chapter Sixty-seven, Section thirty-eight, of the Revised Statutes, relating to Adoption of Children.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Sec. 38, ch. 67,
R. S. amended.

Section thirty-eight, chapter sixty-seven, of the Revised Statutes, is hereby amended by striking out the words "inhabitants of his county," and inserting in the place thereof the word 'persons,' so that said section as amended, shall read as follows :

Adoption, any decree of, may be annulled

'SECT. 38. Any judge of probate may, on petition of two or more persons, after notice and hearing, and for good cause shown, reverse and annul any decree of the probate court in his county, whereby any child has been adopted under this chapter.'

Approved February 28, 1889.
