Chapter 239.

An Act amendatory of Section eighteen of Chapter seventeen of the Revised Statutes, relating to erection of Steam Engines.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. Section eighteen of chapter seventeen of the Revised Statutes is hereby amended, by adding thereto after the word "applicant" in the last line the following words, 'from the decision of the selectmen of towns in granting or refusing such license, any person aggrieved by such decision may appeal therefrom to the next term of the supreme judicial court held in said county, which court may appoint a committee of three disinterested persons, as is provided in relation to appeals from location of highways. Said committee shall be sworn and give fourteen days' notice of the time and place of their hearing to the parties interested, view the premises, hear the parties, and affirm, reverse or annul the decision of said selectmen, and their decision shall be final. Pending such appeal from granting such license, the supreme judicial court in equity may enjoin the erection of such building and steam engine,' so that said section as amended, shall read as follows :

Sec. 13, ch. 17,
R. S. amended.

SECT. 18. When application is made for such license, said officers shall assign a time and place for its consideration, and give at least fourteen days' public notice thereof, in such manner as they think proper, at the expense of the applicant. From the decision of the selectmen of towns, in granting or refusing such license, any person aggrieved by such decision may appeal therefrom to the next term of the supreme judicial court held in said county, which court may appoint a committee of three disinterested persons, as is provided in relation to appeals from location of highways. Said committee shall be sworn and give fourteen days' notice of the time and place of their hearing to the parties interested, view the premises, hear the parties, and affirm, reverse or annul the decision of said selectmen, and their decision shall be final. Pending such appeal from granting such license, the supreme judicial court in equity may enjoin the erection of such building and steam engine.'
