Chapter 254.

An Act to amend Section sixty one of Chapter forty of the Revised Statutes, relating to Public Fish Culture.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section sixty-one of chapter forty of the Revised Statutes is hereby amended by striking out all after the figures "sixty-one," and inserting as follows:

Sec. 61, ch. 40,
R. S. amended.

'They may, after a hearing, set apart, for a term not exceeding ten years, any waters for the use of themselves or of the United States commissioner of fish and fisheries in the prosecution of the work of fish culture and of scientific research relative to fishes. The order setting apart such waters shall be recorded in the registry of deeds of the county in which they are situated. In waters so set apart they and the United States commissioner of fish and fisheries, and persons acting under their authority, may, in their respective fishcultural and scientific work, take fish at any time or in any manner, and erect and maintain any fixtures necessary for such purposes. No other person shall take or kill any fish, or use any implement for fishing therein, under a penalty of not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars, and a further penalty of one dollar for each fish so taken or killed; provided, however, that before such hearing
