Chapter 264.

An Act to amend Section sixty-seven of Chapter sixty-four of the Revised Statutes, relating to embezzlement of estates of Deceased Persons.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Sec. 67, ch. 64,
R. S. amended.

Section sixty-seven of chapter sixty-four of the Revised Statutes is hereby amended by striking out all after the word "examination," in the tenth line, and by adding thereto, after the word "examination," above mentioned, the words, 'such examination shall not be extended over any period of time exceeding twenty years before the time said complaint is filed in the probate court'; so that said section as amended, shall read as follows :

Embezzlement
of estate of deceased persons, proceedings in case of.

‘SECT. 67. Upon complaint by an executor, administrator, heir, legatee, creditor or other person interested in the estate of a person deceased, against any one suspected of having concealed or conveyed away any money, goods, effects or real estate of the deceased, or of having fraudulently received any such money, goods, effects or real estate, or of aiding others in so doing, the judge of probate may cite such suspected person or corporation to appear before him to be examined on oath in relation thereto, and he may require him to produce for the inspection of the court and parties, all books, papers or other documents within his control, relating to the matter under examination; such examination shall not be extended over any period of time exceeding twenty years before the time said complaint is filed in the probate court.’

Approved March 6, 1889.
