PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE.

1889.

Chapter 280.

An Act additional to Chapter thirty of the Revised Statutes, establishing a bounty on Crows.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. A bounty of ten cents for every crow killed, in any town in this state, between the thirty-first day of March and the first day of November of each year, shall be paid by the treasurer thereof, to the person depositing, in lots of ten or more, the heads of the same with such treasurer. The treasurer shall immediately destroy such heads.

Bounty on crows, established.

SECT. 2. Towns shall be reimbursed from the state treasury, and town treasurers shall require and give similar certificates and receipts and be qualified to administer the same oath, as made and provided in sections six, seven and eight of chapter thirty of the Revised Statutes.

Towns shall be reimbursed from State treasury.

SECT. 3. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 9, 1889.

Chapter 281.

An Act to prohibit discrimination in Life or Endowment Insurance Policies.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. No life insurance company doing business in this state shall make or permit any distinction or discrimination in favor of individuals between insurants of the same class and equal expectation of life, in the amount of payment of premiums, or rates charged for policies of life or endowment insurance, or in the dividends or other benefits payable thereon, or in any other of the terms and conditions of the contract it makes. Nor shall any such company or any agent thereof make any contract of insurance or agreement as to such contract, other than as plainly expressed in the policy issued thereon; nor shall any such company or agent pay or allow or offer to pay or allow as inducement to insurance, any rebate of premiums payable on the policy or other benefits to accrue thereon, on any valuable consideration or inducement whatever not specified in the policy contract of insurance.

Discrimination in life or endowment policies, prohibited.

Rebate of premiums shall not be allowed as an inducement to insurance.
