Chapter 108.

An Act for the better protection of Timber Lands of this State.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

State fire wardens, and their duties.

Fish and game wardens are hereby made state fire wardens, and it shall be their duty while in and about the woods, to caution all sportsmen of the danger from fires in the woods, and to extinguish all fires left burning by any one, if within their power; and to give notice to any and all parties interested when possible, of fires raging and beyond their control, to the end that the same may be controlled and extinguished.

Approved March 27, 1891.

Chapter 109.

An Act to amend section seventeen of chapter seventy of the Revised Statutes, relating to the Insolvent Law.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Sec. 17, ch. 70,
R. S., amended.

Section seventeen of chapter seventy of the revised statutes of eighteen hundred and eighty-three, is hereby amended by inserting after the word "resides" in the third line of said section the words 'or if a non-resident of the state, to the judge of the county in which said non-resident debtor may have personal property or real estate,' so that said section as amended, shall read as follows:

When creditors
make application, setting forth certain allegations,
the judge may issue warrant for attachment

'SECT. 17. When one or more creditors of a debtor makes application under oath, by petition by them signed, to the judge of the county in which the debtor resides, or if a non-resident of the state, to the judge of the county in which
