PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF MAINE.

1891.

Chapter 123.

An Act to authorize the extension of the Old Town Street Railway.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

The Old Town Street Railway is hereby authorized to extend its lines of railway from some point in the town of Old Town to and through the towns of Milford and Bradley, and to enjoy all the rights and privileges and subject to all the conditions and restrictions in all respects as is provided in the original charter.

Old Town Street Ry., authorized to extend line into Milford and Bradley.

Approved February 27, 1891.

Chapter 124.

An Act to regulate the taking of fish from Lower Kezar Pond, Fryeburg, Oxford county, and the tributaries connecting therewith.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

SECT. 1. All persons are forbidden fishing for, or taking black bass, pickerel, or any other fish from the waters of Lower Kezar pond, or its tributaries, in Fryeburg, Oxford county, Maine, for the purpose of selling the same.

Taking of fish in Lower Kezar pond for purposes of selling same, prohibited.

SECT. 2. No person shall take or have in his possession, at any one time, fish taken from said pond, exceeding twenty-five pounds, in all, nor shall any fish be transported except in possession of the owner thereof, under a penalty of twenty dollars for the offense, and one dollar for each pound of fish so taken, or in possession, or transportation, in excess of twenty-five pounds, in all, of such fish transported in violation of this act. Whoever has in possession, at any one time, more than twenty-five pounds in all of such fish, shall be deemed to have taken them in violation of this section, and such fish may be seized on complaint and forfeited to the prosecutor.

Penalty, for violation.

SECT. 3. The fines and penalties provided by this act, may be recovered before any trial justice in Oxford county, Maine, one-half to the prosecutor, and one-half to the county of Oxford.

Fines, how recovered and disposed of.

Approved February 27, 1891.
