PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE.

1893.

Chapter 153.

An Act relating to Highway Ditches and Drains.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

SECT. 1. The municipal officers of a town may at the expense of the town construct ditches and drains to carry water away from any highway or road therein, and over or through any lands of persons or corporations when they deem it necessary for public convenience or for the proper care of such highway or road, provided that no such ditch or drain shall pass under nor within twenty feet of any dwelling house without the consent of the owner thereof. Such ditches or drains shall be under the control of said municipal officers and willful interference therewith shall be punished as is provided by statute for obstruction in a traveled road. If such town does not maintain and keep in repair such ditches and drains, the owner or occupant of the lands through or over which they pass, may have his action against the town for damages thereby sustained.

Towns may construct ditches and drains through lands of persons and corporations.

—shall be under control of municipal officers.

—liability for damages if not kept in repair.

SECT. 2. Before land is so taken, notice shall be given and damages assessed and paid therefor as is provided for the location of town ways.

Notice shall be given and damages assessed before land is taken.

Approved February 16, 1893.
