Chapter 160.

An Act to amend section seventy-six of chapter eighty-six of the Revised Statutes, relating to Judgments against Trustees.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Section seventy-six of chapter eighty-six of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following: 'Such payment, delivery or accounting for may be made either to the officer holding the execution, or to the plaintiff or his attorney of record, and may be proved by the officer's return upon the execution, by endorsement made thereon by the plaintiff or his attorney of record, or by any other competent evidence,' so that said section as amended, shall read as follows :

Sec. 76, ch. 86, R. S., amended.

SECT. 76. The judgment against any person as trustee discharges him from all demands by the principal defendant or his executors or administrators, for all goods, effects and credits, paid, delivered or accounted for by the trustee thereon; and if he is afterwards sued for the same by the defendant or his executors or administrators, such judgments and disposal of the goods, effects and credits as above stated, being proved, shall be a bar to the action for the amount so paid or delivered by him. Such payment, delivery or accounting for may be made either to the officer holding the execution or to the plaintiff or his attorney of record, and may be proved by the officer's return upon the execution, by endorsement made thereon by the plaintiff or his attorney of record, or by any other competent evidence.'

Effect of judgment against trustee.

Approved February 16, 1893.
