PUBLIC LAWS OF THE
STATE OF MAINE.

1893.

CHAP. 168

—traveling expenses shall be allowed.

—notice of sessions.

—town assessors required to attend meetings and answer questions.

—penalty if town assessors fail to attend meetings.

visits, in addition to their salaries, the amount actually paid by them for traveling expenses, said expenses to be allowed by the governor and council on properly itemized accounts. The state assessors shall give such public notice of said meetings as they deem proper, and shall give to each board of town assessors a notice by mail of the time and place of such meetings. Said board of town assessors or some member or members of each of them, shall attend said meeting, having with them the then last list or books giving the valuation of all taxable property in their respective towns. They shall answer under oath if required, such questions pertaining to the valuation of the property in their towns as the state assessors may put to them. Said meetings shall be under the general direction of the state assessors and governed by such rules of order as said state assessors shall make and announce. Any town whose assessors shall fail to attend said meetings, without excuse satisfactory to the state assessors, shall be liable to pay the reasonable expenses of the state assessors or of any person or persons appointed by the state assessors, incurred in making examination of the lists or books of said town or in getting other evidence pertaining to the valuation of the property in such town. Towns shall pay to said town assessors a reasonable compensation and actual expenses incurred in complying with the requirements of this act.'

Approved February 28, 1893.
