OF THE
STATE OF MAINE.

1893.

CHAP. 171

Chapter 171.

An Act to amend section three of chapter one hundred twelve of the Public Laws of eighteen hundred ninety-one, relating to Insurance Brokers, to correct an error in said section.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Sec. 3, ch. 112,
Pub. Laws 1891, amended.

Section three of chapter one hundred twelve of the public laws of eighteen hundred ninety-one is hereby amended, so as to read as follows :

Commissioner
may license insurance brokers.

‘SECT. 3. Section seventy-four of said chapter is hereby amended so that said section as amended, shall read as follows :

‘SECT. 74. The commissioner may license any person as broker to negotiate contracts of insurance for others than himself for a compensation, by virtue of which license he may effect insurance with any domestic company; or any resident of the state to negotiate such contracts and effect insurance with the agents of any foreign company who have been licensed to do business in this state, as provided in sections seventy-two and seventy-three but with no others. For such license he shall pay five dollars, authorizing him thus to act until the first day of the next July; and on a payment of a similar fee his license may be renewed from year to year, ending on the first day of each July. Whoever, without such license, assumes to act as such broker, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars, or by imprisonment not more than sixty days for each offense, and licenses of insurance agents and brokers may be revoked by the commissioner, upon conviction for the violation of any of the provisions of this and the preceding section.’
