Chapter 180.

An Act to amend section two of chapter forty-six of the Revised Statutes, relating to Corporations.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Sec. 2, ch. 46, R. S., amended.

Section two of chapter forty-six is hereby amended by adding thereto the following: 'directors must be and remain stockholders, except that a member of another corporation, which owns stock and has a right to vote thereon, may be a director.' So that said section, as amended, shall read as follows :

General powers of corporations.

'SECT. 2. Corporations may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, in their corporate name; have a common seal alterable at pleasure; elect all necessary officers; prescribe their duties and fix their compensation; make by-laws consistent with the laws of the state and their charters; and hold and convey lands and other property. Directors must be and remain stockholders, except that a member of another corporation, which owns stock and has a right to vote thereon, may be a director.'

—directors must be stockholders.

Approved March 1, 1893.
