Chapter 183.

An Act to abolish the Superior Court in the county of Aroostook.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Act establishing superior court for Aroostook county, abolished.

—jurisdiction and all powers, transferred to supreme judicial court.

SECT. 1. Chapter three hundred and twenty-four of the public laws of the state of Maine, for the year eighteen hundred and eighty-five, establishing a superior court in and for Aroostook county, Maine, and all acts additional thereto and amendatory thereof are hereby repealed, and the entire jurisdiction, civil, criminal and appellate, of said superior court, and all powers incident thereto, are hereby transferred to and conferred upon the supreme judicial court, which court shall henceforth exercise the same in the same manner as they were exercised by the supreme judicial court previous to the establishment of said superior court, or as said supreme judicial court is authorized to exercise the same in similar cases ; and shall grant any executions or other process necessary to carry into effect any judgment, order or decree of said superior court, as fully as said superior court might have done had not this act been passed.

Records and custody of same, transferred to supreme judicial court.

SECT. 2. The records of said superior court and the custody of the same is transferred to the clerk of the supreme judicial court for said county, to whose attestation of the same, or of their contents, full faith shall be given.

All indictments, suits and processes, civil and criminal, transferred to supreme judicial court.

SECT. 3. All indictments and informations, all civil suits and all other processes, civil or criminal, pending in said superior court, shall be and hereby are transferred to the supreme judicial court of said county, and shall be entered on the docket of the same at the first term next after this act takes effect, and shall have day therein and be heard and disposed of as if originally entered in said supreme judicial court ; and all writs, petitions, warrants and recognizances, appeals in civil and criminal cases, and all processes whatsoever, returnable to said superior court, or which by law should have been entered at the term of said superior court next after this act takes effect, shall be returnable to and be entered on the docket of said supreme judicial court, at the term of the same holden next after this act takes effect, and shall have day in said supreme judicial court and be heard and disposed of as if originally entered therein ; and all parties, grand jurors, witnesses and others who would have been held to appear at the term of said superior court which but for the passage of this act would have been held in November, eighteen hundred and ninety-three, shall be holden to appear at the term of said supreme judicial court to be held at Houlton in said county next after this act takes effect.

SECT. 4. The judgments, decisions, orders and decrees of the supreme judicial court at any law term made in cases originating in said superior court, shall be certified to the clerk of the supreme judicial court for said county of Aroostook, and such further proceedings had as would have been had if the same had originated in said supreme judicial court within and for said county of Aroostook.

Judgments, decisions, orders.

SECT. 5. The purpose of this act being to repeal the act establishing said superior court, and all acts additional thereto, and to transfer to and confer upon the supreme judicial court all the powers and jurisdiction of said superior court, this act shall in all respects, be so construed as may best effectuate that purpose.

Purposes of this act.

SECT. 6. The county of Aroostook shall furnish proper and convenient rooms and accommodations in the town of Caribou in said county, for the use of said supreme judicial court, at an expense not to exceed two hundred dollars a year.

County of Aroostook, required
to furnish rooms in Caribou for use of supreme judicial court.

SECT. 7. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act, are hereby repealed ; and this act shall take effect July first, eighteen hundred and ninety-three.

Inconsistent
acts, repealed.
