Chapter 199.

An Act to provide for the education of scholars living at any light station not embraced within the limits of any school district.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Scholars at light stations may be admitted to any public school.

SECT. 1. Any person between the age of five and twenty-one years living at any light station not embraced within the limits of any school district, shall be admitted to any public school in this state without paying tuition.

Shall be entitled to privileges of resident scholars.

SECT. 2. Such scholars shall be entitled to all privileges and benefits, and be subject to the same conditions, rules and regulations as scholars residing in the district in which they attend school.

Inconsistent acts repealed.

SECT. 3. All acts and part of acts not consistent herewith, are hereby repealed.

SECT. 4. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 10, 1893.

Chapter 200.

An Act to amend Section twelve of Chapter forty-six of the Revised Statutes relating to Corporations.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Sec. 12, ch. 46, R. S., amended.

Section twelve of chapter forty-six of the revised statutes is hereby amended by inserting after the word "president" in the eighth line thereof, the words 'or vice-president,' so that said section, as amended, will read as follows:

Transfer of shares, how made.

'SECT. 12. When the capital of a corporation is divided into shares, and certificates thereof are issued, they may be transferred by indorsement and delivery, but such transfer is not valid, except between the parties thereto, until the same is so entered on the books of the corporation as to exhibit the names and residences of the parties, the number of the shares, and the date of their transfer. Certificates of shares shall be issued to those entitled to them by transfer or otherwise, signed by the president or vice-president and attested by the cashier, clerk or treasurer. Neither shall sign blanks and leave them for use by the other, nor sign them without knowledge of the apparent title of the person to whom they are issued. In case of the absence or disability of either of said officers, the signature of a majority of the directors in his stead is sufficient.'

—certificates, by whom signed.

Approved March 10, 1893.

Chapter 201.

An Act to authorize the board of State Assessors to make corrections and abatements.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

SECT. 1. The board of state assessors may upon knowledge of any clerical error made by said board in the apportionment of any taxes upon the property of any person, corporation or municipality within this state, make an abatement of such proportion of said taxes, and shall furnish the state treasurer with a list of such abatements and the amount of the same; and such amount or amounts shall be deducted from the tax upon said property.

Assessors may, upon knowledge of clerical error, make abatement of taxes.

SECT. 2. The board of state assessors, upon the certificate of the state treasurer, that any piece or parcel of property in the state has been doubly taxed in any year, and that a moiety of such tax has been paid, may abate the balance remaining unpaid, and said tax or taxes shall be canceled upon the treasurer's books.

May abate tax, when property has been doubly taxed.

SECT. 3. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 10, 1893.
