Chapter 202.

An Act to amend Section one hundred and nineteen of Chapter forty-seven of the Revised Statutes, relating to the examination of Savings Banks.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Sec. 119, ch. 47, §
R. S., amended.

SECT. 1. Section one hundred and nineteen of chapter forty-seven of the revised statutes, is hereby amended by inserting in place of the word "twice" in the fourth line thereof, the word 'once,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

Bank examiner
shall examine savings banks.

SECT. 119. Such institutions and associations are under the charge of the bank examiner for the purposes of examination. He shall visit every savings bank, institution for savings, and trust and loan association, incorporated by authority of the state, once in every year, and as much oftener as he deems expedient. At such visits he shall have free access to the vaults, books and papers, and thoroughly inspect and examine all the affairs of each of said corporations, and make such inquiries as are necessary to ascertain its condition and ability to fulfill all its engagements, and whether it has complied with the law. He shall preserve in a permanent form, a full record of his proceedings, including a statement of the condition of each of said corporations, a copy of which statement shall be published by such corporation immediately after the examination of the same, in a newspaper in the place where it is established, if any, otherwise in a newspaper published in the place nearest thereto.'

—shall visit
institutions
annually.

—shall make thorough examination.

—proceedings,
and statement of
condition of corporation, to be published.

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 10, 1893.
