PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE.

1893.

Chapter 208.

An Act to amend Section forty-one, Chapter forty of the Revised Statutes, relating to the protection of Salmon, Shad and other migratory fish at certain points on Penobscot and Kennebec Rivers.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows.

Section forty-one of chapter forty of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter sixty-six, public laws of eighteen hundred eighty-seven, and former amendments, is hereby amended by inserting after the word "state," in the seventeenth line of said section as heretofore amended, the following words, 'nor shall it apply to the taking of alewives by the town of Woolwich in the Nequasset stream,' so that said section including all amendments shall read as follows :

Sec. 41, ch. 40,
R. S., further amended.

‘SECT. 41. No salmon, shad or other migratory fish shall be taken or fished for within five hundred yards of any fish way, dam or mill race ; nor in the Penobscot river between the mouth of the Kenduskeag stream and the water works dam at Treat’s falls, on said river ; nor between the Augusta highway bridge over the Kennebec river and the Augusta dam, between the first days of April and November, except by the ordinary mode of angling with single hook and line, or artificial flies ; nor shall hook and line or artificial flies be used at any time within one hundred yards of any fish way, dam or mill race ; but this section shall not apply to the taking of alewives by the town of Warren in the Georges river, and by the town of Waldoborough in the Medomak river, under the authority granted said towns by the private and special laws of Massachusetts, passed March six, eighteen hundred and two, and amendments thereto, passed by the legislature of this state ; nor shall it apply to the taking of alewives by the town of Woolwich in Nequasset stream. The penalty for violation of this section is a fine of not more than fifty nor less than ten dollars for each offense, and a further fine of ten dollars for each salmon, and one dollar for each shad, so taken.’

Salmon, shad,
etc., not to be taken or fished
for at certain points on Penobscot and Kennebec rivers from April 1 to Nov. 1,
except by
ordinary angling.
