CHAP. 441

Company, shall pay expense of paving streets between tracks.

words: 'And when any street or streets along which the track of said railroad shall be laid, shall be paved by the city of Waterville or the town of Fairfield, said railroad company shall pay the expense of laying the pavement between the tracks or rails; said city or town to furnish the materials therefor, and if said railroad company shall fail to pay the same within three months after said pavement shall be laid and completed, said city or town may recover of said railroad company said expense by action of debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.'

Approved March 1, 1893.

Chapter 441.

An Act to extend the charter of the Bath Street Railway Company.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Preamble.

Whereas, the Bath Street Railway Company has organized under its charter, and its location has been fixed and determined under section one of chapter three hundred and seventy-four, of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred eighty-nine, therefore:

Time for commencing business, extended.

SECT. 1. The time within which the Bath Street Railway Company shall commence actual business under its charter, is hereby extended for two years from the approval of this act.

Sec. 12, ch. 374, Special Laws, 1889, repealed.

SECT. 2. Section twelve of chapter three hundred and seventy-four of the private and special laws for the year eighteen hundred eighty-nine, is hereby repealed.

Sec. 13, amended.

SECT. 3. Section thirteen of said private and special laws is hereby amended, by striking out therefrom the following words: "It is also hereby authorized to lease all its property and franchises upon such terms as it may determine."

SECT. 4. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 2, 1893.
