construct a toll
carriage road in Eden.

SECT. 1. The Green Mountain Carriage Road Company is authorized to construct, maintain and operate a toll carriage road and foot way in the town of Eden, Hancock county, beginning at some convenient point on the Eagle lake road, so called, near the foot of Green mountain, and extending thence up the sides of Green mountain, to the summit thereof, with all the necessary toll gates, toll houses and waiting stations.

—location.

Authorized to take land, by right of eminent domain.

SECT. 2. For the purposes named in the foregoing section of this act, the said Green Mountain Carriage Road Company is authorized to take and hold by gift or purchase, or as for public purposes by right of eminent domain, land not exceeded six rods in width for its main line of road, and not exceeding four rods in width additional, and ten rods in length for any side road or turn out place, and not exceeding one-fourth of an acre for each toll house or station, but said toll houses or stations shall not exceed three in number.

Method, by which land may be taken.

SECT. 3. The method of such taking of land by eminent domain, shall be by causing surveys and plans thereof to be made and such plans and an accurate description of lands to be taken, to be filed and recorded in the Hancock county registry of deeds, with the names of the owners of the land so taken, and by causing such description to be published in some newspaper printed in said Hancock county.

Damages, how assessed, in case
of disagreement.

SECT. 4. In case said company and the owner of any land so taken do not agree upon the damages for such taking, either party may petition the county commissioners of Hancock county to assess such damages, and thereupon and thereafter the proceedings shall be the same as in the case of assessing damages for land taken for highways.

Tolls.

SECT. 5. For the purposes named in the first section of this act, the said company may levy and collect such reasonable tolls as may be approved by the county commissioners of Hancock county for the use of its road and stations. The said company may also for the same purposes borrow money, issue its notes or bonds, and secure the same by a mortgage
