PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE.

1893.

Chapter 524.

An Act to ratify and make valid the oaths of the Selectmen and Assessors of Franklin, Maine, for the years eighteen hundred and eighty-five, eighteen hundred and eighty-six, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven and eighteen hundred and eighty-nine.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Preamble.

SECT. 1. Whereas, it appears that the selectmen and assessors of Franklin, Hancock county, Maine, for the respective years in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and eighty-five, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and eighty-six and in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and eighty-seven were duly and properly sworn and that the town records thereof are defective and that the selectmen and assessors of the same town for the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and eighty-nine were sworn by the moderator at the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and eighty-nine annual town meeting ; now, therefore, be it enacted that the several oaths actually taken in the premises are sufficient in law and that they have the same force and effect as if duly taken, filed and recorded as the law required.

—oaths of the selectmen, made valid.

Act, shall not affect any action at law.

SECT. 2. This act shall not affect any action at law or equity heretofore instituted.

Approved March 17, 1893.

Chapter 525.

An Act granting additional powers to the Maine Universalist Convention.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

The Maine Universalist Convention is hereby authorized and empowered to receive and hold real and personal property in simple and special trusts, and to execute all trusts devoted to the diffusion and promotion of the christian doctrine of Universalism. No bond shall be required for the faithful discharge of such duties except upon the order of the court.

Convention, authorized to hold real and personal property.

—bond, shall not be required.

Approved March 17, 1893.
