CHAP. 628 and usual place of abode, seven days before the time of meeting.

SECT. 9. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 29, 1893.

Chapter 628.

An Act for the protection of Trout and Land-locked Salmon in certain waters of the Rangeley chain of Lakes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Close time for fish in certain waters of Rangeley lakes, between Oct. 1 and May 15.

SECT. 1. No person shall take, catch, fish for or destroy any trout or land-locked salmon in any of the streams flowing into Rangeley lake, or in Ross pond, at any time; nor in Round, Dodge or Kemankeag ponds, from October first to May fifteenth; nor in the Rangeley stream from the lower wharf at the outlet of Rangeley lake to the foot of the Rangeley dam of the Union Water Power Company, at any time; nor in Whetstone brook which flows into Kennebago stream, nor from the foot of the boulders, so called, in said stream to the head of the falls at the outlet of Kennebago lake, at any time; nor in Metalluc brook which flows into the upper Richardson lake, or in the tributaries of said brook, at any time. Provided, that the above provisions shall not apply to that portion of the stream connecting Long pond and Rangeley lake, which is below the old pine stump standing above the bridge, on said stream, nor to Cascade brook, so called, in Greenvale plantation just east of Greenvale house.

Penalty.

SECT. 2. Any person who shall violate the provisions of this act shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars for the attempt, and one dollar for each and every trout or land-locked salmon so taken, caught, killed or destroyed, to be recovered by complaint before any trial justice, one-half to the complainant, and one-half to the county where the complaint is made.

Approved March 29, 1893.
