Chapter 231.

Resolve relative to the appointment of a commission to take under consideration the subject of Private and Special Legislation.

Special Legislation, commission to consider.

Resolved, That the governor with the advice and consent of the council shall appoint a board of three commissioners whose duty it shall be to take into consideration the subject of private and special legislation, and investigate and ascertain what subjects of this character may properly be provided for by general laws and for which special legislation has heretofore been asked, so that in the future the legislature may be relieved from the enactment of special laws relative to such matters. Said commissioners shall report their recommendations to the next legislature during the first week of its session, with such forms and drafts of bills as they may deem applicable to such subjects.

Approved March 29, 1893.
