acts, repealed.

SECT. 9. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed, but the passage of this act shall not affect suits pending when it takes effect.

Approved February 21, 1895.

Chapter 31.

An Act to amend section fifty-four, chapter forty, of the Revised Statutes, as amended by chapter two hundred and seventy-one of the Public Laws of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, relating to the number of pounds of Trout and Salmon to be taken.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Sec. 54, ch. 40,
R. S., as amended by
ch. 271, Public
Laws of 1885,
further
amended.

SECT. 1. Section fifty-four of chapter forty of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter two hundred and seventy-one, public laws of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, is hereby amended as follows: By striking out the word "fifty" in the third line, and insert the word 'twenty-five'; also, by striking out the word "fifty" in the eighth and twelfth lines of said section, and inserting the word 'twenty-five'; also, by adding to said section the following words, 'provided, however, that the taking of one fish, additional, when having less than twenty-five pounds, shall not be regarded a violation of the law'; so that said section as amended, shall read as follows :

Transportation of more than twenty-five pounds at
any one time,
how punished.

'SECT. 54. No person shall take, catch, kill, or have in possession, at any one time for the purpose of transportation, more than twenty-five pounds of land-locked salmon or trout, in all, nor shall any such be transported except in the possession of the owner thereof, under a penalty of fifty dollars for the offense, and five dollars for every pound of land-locked salmon or trout, in all, so taken, caught, killed, in possession, or transportation, in excess of twenty-five pounds, and all such fish transported in violation of this section, may be seized, on complaint, and shall be forfeited to the prosecutor. Whoever has in his possession more than twenty-five pounds in all of such fish, shall be deemed to have taken them in violation of this section. Provided, however, that the taking of one fish additional, when having less than twenty-five pounds shall not be regarded a violation of the law.'

guilt.

Approved February 21, 1895.

Chapter 32.

An Act to amend section five of chapter one hundred and eleven of the Revised Statutes, relating to Personal Property bargained and delivered to another, which shall remain the property of the seller till paid for.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section five of chapter one hundred and eleven of the revised statutes, is hereby amended by striking out all after the word "another" in the second line, and inserting instead thereof the following: 'shall remain the property of the seller till paid for, is valid unless the same is in writing and signed by the person to be bound thereby. And when so made and signed, whether said agreement is, or is called a note, lease, conditional sale, purchase on installments, or by any other name, and in whatever form it may be, it shall not be valid except as between the original parties thereto, unless it is recorded in the office of the clerk of the town in which the purchaser resides at the time of the purchase. The fee for recording the same shall be the same as that for recording mortgages of personal property. All said agreements, whether recorded or not, shall be subject to redemption; but the title may be foreclosed in the same manner as is provided for mortgages of personal property,' so that said section as amended, shall read as follows:

Sec. 5, ch. 111,
R. S.,
amended.

'SECT. 5. No agreement that personal property bargained and delivered to another, shall remain the property of the seller till paid for, is valid unless the same is in writing and signed by the person to be bound thereby. And when so made and signed, whether said agreement is, or is called a note, lease, conditional sale, purchase on installments, or by

Agreement
that goods
sold and delivered shall remain the property of the seller un-
less in writing
and signed by person bound.
