PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE.

1895.

Chapter 35.

An Act to create a Lien for towing Logs.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Lien created on logs, for towing.

SECT. 1. Owners of steamboats employed in towing logs or lumber on any of the inland waters of this state, shall have a lien on such logs or lumber for the amount due for such towing. Said lien shall take precedence of all other claims except liens reserved to the state, labor liens and liens for stumpage.

Sec. 42, ch. 91, R. S., made applicable.

SECT. 2. Section forty-two of chapter ninety-one of the revised statutes, is hereby made applicable to suits brought to enforce the above lien.

SECT. 3. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved February 21, 1895.

Chapter 36.

An Act to amend chapter thirty of the Revised Statutes, relating to the protection of Game.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Sec. 10, ch. 30, R. S., as amended by ch. 93, Public Laws of 1891, further amended.

Section ten of chapter thirty of the revised statutes as amended by section two of chapter ninety-five of the public laws of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, is hereby amended by striking out all of said section after the word "dogs" in the second line and inserting the following words, 'jack lights, so called, torches, snares, or traps, any deer or caribou, forfeits forty dollars for every deer or caribou so hunted, caught, killed or destroyed, and be imprisoned not exceeding thirty days ; and no person shall, between the first days of January and October, in any manner, hunt, catch, kill, destroy, or have in possession any deer or caribou, or part thereof, taken in close time, under the same penalty,' so that said section as amended, shall read as follows :

Hunting deer and caribou with dogs, jack lights, etc., how punished.

SECT. 10. Whoever hunts, catches, kills or destroys with dogs, jack lights, so called, snares, or traps, any deer or caribou, forfeits forty dollars for every deer or caribou so hunted, caught, killed or destroyed, and be subject to imprisonment thirty days, and no person shall, between the first days of January and October, in any manner, hunt, catch, kill, destroy or have in possession any deer or caribou, or part thereof, taken in close time, under the same penalty. Any person may lawfully kill any dog found hunting moose, deer or caribou, or kept or used for that purpose. Any person owning or having in possession any dog for the purpose of hunting moose, deer or caribou, or that is kept or used for such hunting, forfeits not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars for each dog so owned, kept, used or in possession.'

CHAP. 37

—dog, hunting moose, deer or caribou, may be killed.

—penalty for keeping such dog.

Approved February 21, 1895.

Chapter 37.

An Act to amend section two of chapter sixty-four of the Public Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-one, relating to the employment of Stenographers at hearings and examinations in courts of probate and courts of insolvency.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

SECT. 1. Section two of chapter sixty-four of the public laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-one, is hereby amended by adding at the end of said section, the following words: 'But any person whose testimony or examination has been so taken, may, with the consent of the judge, waive, in writing, the signing of the transcript, and in such case the stenographer shall read his notes to such person before the hearing or examination is closed, and if they are found to be correct, or if alleged errors and mistakes are either corrected, or proceedings are had in relation to the same in like manner as provided in section three, with reference to transcripts, the transcript of such testimony or examination shall be deemed to be complete and correct without signing and shall have the same effect, as if signed,' so that the said section as amended, shall read as follows:

Sec. 2, ch. 64,
Public Laws
of 1891, amended.

SECT. 2. When a transcript has been made as provided by section one of this act, it shall be read to the person whose testimony or examination it is, at a time and place to be appointed by the judge, unless such person or his counsel, in writing, waives such reading, and if it is found to be correct, or if it contains errors or mistakes, or alleged errors or mis-
