PUBLIC LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE.

1895.

---

‘SECT. 4. In every town and city where a free public library exists, the state librarian shall transmit to such library all laws, Maine reports, and other documents which the town or city is by law entitled to receive from the state, and the same shall be constantly kept in such library for the use and benefit of all the citizens; and the municipal officers of said town or city, shall transfer to said library all the laws, Maine reports and other documents, heretofore received from the state, and now in custody of any of the officers of said town or city; and the officers of said library, on or before the first day of April of each year, shall send to the state librarian a report containing a list of all books and documents purchased with the state stipend for the preceding year, and of all books and documents received from the state in said library. The aid from the state, hereby provided, shall be withheld from any town or city until the report herein required to be made on or before the first day of April of each year, shall have been received by the state librarian. And the same shall also be withheld unless said report shall show that the laws, Maine reports and other documents furnished to said town or city by the state are kept in said library as required by this act.’

CHAP. 54

Free public libraries shall be entitled to Maine reports, etc., from state library.

Officers shall report annually to state librarian.

—aid shall be withheld until report is made.

SECT. 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved February 28, 1895.

Chapter 54.

An Act relating to Larceny of Beasts and Birds.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Whoever without the consent of the owner and with a felonious intent, takes any beast or bird ordinarily kept in a state of confinement, and not the subject of larceny at common law, shall be deemed guilty of larceny.

Taking of any beasts or birds kept in confinement, shall be deemed larceny.

Approved February 28, 1895.
