PUBLIC LAWS OF THE
STATE OF MAINE.

1895.

CHAP. 63

Chapter 63.

An Act to amend section twenty-six of chapter seventy-three of the Revised Statutes, relating to Unrecorded Deeds.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Sec. 26, ch. 73,
R. S., amended.

Section twenty-six of chapter seventy-three of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding after "county" in the fourth line 'or registry district' so that said section when amended, shall read as follows :

Deed of lands in several counties, lost before record
in all, how recorded in others.

'SECT. 26. If a deed conveying lands in more than one county is lost before being recorded in all, or if a deed is recorded in the wrong county or registry district and lost, a certified copy from a registry where it has been recorded, may be recorded in any other county, or registry district, with the same effect as a record of the original.'

Approved March 5, 1895.

Chapter 64.

An Act to amend paragraph eight of section six of chapter six of the Revised Statutes, relating to Poll Taxes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Sec. 6, ch. 6, R.
S., amended.

Paragraph eight, section six of chapter six of the revised statutes, is hereby amended by adding after the word "charges," in the last line, the words 'and the polls of all soldiers and sailors who receive state pension'; so that said paragraph shall read as follows :

Polls of aged,
infirm, and soldiers and sailors, exempt.

'VIII. The polls and estates of persons who by reason of age, infirmity and poverty, are in the judgment of the assessors unable to contribute toward the public charges ; and the polls of all soldiers and sailors who receive state pension.'

Approved March 5, 1895.
