Chapter 141.

An Act to amend clause twenty-six of section six of chapter one of the Revised Statutes, relating to Corporations.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Sec. 6, ch. 1,
R. S., as amended by
ch. 226, Public Laws of 1893, amended.

Clause twenty-six of section six of chapter one of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter two hundred and twenty-six of the public laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-three, is hereby amended by adding thereto the words : 'The organization of any corporation which may be hereafter organized under any general law of this state becomes null and void within three years from the day when its certificate of incorporation has been filed in the office of the secretary of state, unless such corporation shall have commenced actual business under its organization,' so that said clause of said section as amended, shall read as follows :

Acts of incorporation, shall be regarded as public acts.

—limitation.

'XXVI. Acts of incorporation shall be regarded in legal proceedings as public acts, and be in force of the date of their approval. All acts of incorporation granted since January one, eighteen hundred and ninety-three, become null and void in two years from the day when the same take effect, unless such corporations shall have organized and commenced actual business under their charters. The organization of any corporation which may be hereafter organized under any general law of this state, becomes null and void within three years from the day when its certificate of incorporation has been filed in the office of the secretary of state, unless such corporation shall have commenced actual business under its organization.'

Approved March 25, 1895.
