Chapter 151.

An Act to secure the preservation of the Maine Reports, the Acts and Resolves, and other publications printed or purchased by the state for distribution to towns and various public officers.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Maine reports,
etc., distributed to towns, shall remain the property of the state.

SECT. 1. That all Maine reports, statutes, digests, acts and resolves, and other publications, printed or purchased by the state, and hereafter distributed according to law or custom, to the several towns and plantations within the state, shall be and remain the property of the state, and shall be held in trust by such towns or plantations for the sole use of the inhabitants thereof, and for no other purpose.

All such books
furnished any
state, county,
or town officer,
shall be held in trust by such officer.

SECT. 2. All such books and publications as may hereafter be furnished by the state, to any state, county or town officer, shall be and remain the property of the state, and shall be held in trust by said officer, for the sole use of his said office ; and at the expiration of his term of office or on his removal therefrom by death, resignation or other cause, such officer, or if he be dead, his legal representatives, shall turn over to his successor in office all of said books and publications so furnished by the state and shall take a receipt therefor.

How such books shall be marked.

SECT. 3. All Maine reports, revised statutes, public laws, and digests distributed by the state librarian to the several towns and public officers in said state, shall be plainly marked upon the cover and upon the title page with the following
