Private Laws
of 1893,
amended.

SECT. 1. Section four of chapter four hundred and fifty of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-three, as amended by chapter four hundred and seventy-five of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-three, is hereby amended, so as to read as follows :

Mayor, clerk,
aldermen and
other officers,
how elected.

SECT. 4. The mayor and the city clerk, shall be elected from the citizens at large, by the legal voters of the city voting in their respective wards. Two aldermen, a warden, a ward clerk and one constable shall be elected by each ward, being residents in the ward where elected. All of said officers shall be elected by ballot by a plurality of the votes given, and shall hold their offices one year from the second Monday in March, and until others shall be elected and qualified in their places. All city and ward officers shall be held to discharge the duties of their respective offices, notwithstanding their removal after their election, into any other wards in the city ; but they shall not be so held after they have taken up their permanent residence out of the city. There shall be a school
