Chapter 103.

An Act additional to and amendatory of An Act entitled "An Act to incorporate the Saco River Telegraph and Telephone Company," approved February twenty-three, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

Charter amended.

Section three is hereby amended by striking out the words after "bridges" in the fourth line of said section to the words "if deemed advisable," and inserting in lieu thereof the words 'as now or hereafter traveled by the teams carrying the United States mail through the towns of Waterborough, Shapleigh, Acton, Newfield, Limington and Cornish in county of York, and in the town of Standish in the county of Cumberland or upon town roads in said towns in county of York and town of Standish,' so that said section shall read as follows :

May locate lines along any highway, in counties of York and Cumberland.

SECT. 3. For the purposes of this act the said corporation shall have, and the power is hereby granted, to erect and locate its lines along and upon the highways, streets and bridges as now or hereafter traveled by the teams carrying the United States mail through the towns of Waterborough, Shapleigh, Acton, Newfield, Limington and Cornish, in county of York, and in the town of Standish, in the county of Cumberland, or upon town roads in said towns in county of York, and town of Standish, if deemed advisable, but in such a manner as not to incommode or endanger the customary and public use thereof; and the company may cut down any trees standing within the limits of said highways, streets or

Not to endanger public use of highways.

bridges, except fruit, ornamental or shade trees, when necessary for the erection, use and safety of its lines.'

Approved February 28, 1895.

Chapter 104.

An Act to legalize the Consolidation of the York Mutual Aid Association, the Kennebec Mutual Life Insurance Company and the Orient Mutual Life Insurance Company.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows :

SECT. 1. The proceedings of the York Mutual Aid Association, the Kennebec Mutual Life Insurance Company and the Orient Mutual Life Insurance Company, whereby said companies consolidated under the name of the Maine Mutual Life Insurance Company, are hereby ratified and made valid, and the treasurer of state is hereby authorized and directed to transfer the reserve funds of said York Mutual Aid Association, Kennebec Mutual Life Insurance Company and Orient Mutual Life Insurance Company, now held by him, to the credit of the Maine Mutual Life Insurance Company; said funds to be held and used in accordance with the provisions of chapter two hundred and fourteen of the public laws of one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

Doings of certain insurance companies, ratified.

Treasurer of state authorized to transfer funds to Me. M. Life Ins. Co.

SECT. 2. The said Maine Mutual Life Insurance Company is subject to the same duties, obligations and liabilities as apply to the said York Mutual Aid Association, the Kennebec Mutual Life Insurance Company and the Orient Mutual Life Insurance Company and may sue and be sued by its new name; and no action brought against either of the above named companies by its former name, shall be defeated on that account, but on motion of either party, the new name may be substituted therefor in the action; and no judgment obtained against either of said companies by its former name shall be defeated by reason hereof, but all such judgments, so obtained, and in force, and any judgments hereafter obtained, either at law or in equity, against either of said above named companies, shall be of the same effect as if obtained direct against said Maine Mutual Life Insurance Company; and the assets and funds of said last named com-

Co. liable for obligations of the other companies.

Judgment against either Co. shall not be defeated because of use of former name.
