Chapter 314.

An Act to amend chapter six hundred and thirteen of the Private and Special Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-three, entitled "An Act to establish the Western Hancock Municipal Court."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Sec. 3, ch. 613, Private and Special Laws of 1893, amended.

SECT. 1. Section three of chapter six hundred and thirteen of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-three is hereby amended, so as to read as follows:

Appointment of recorder.

SECT. 3. The governor, by and with the consent of the council, shall appoint a recorder of said court, who shall be an inhabitant of the county of Hancock, and shall hold his said office for the term of four years. Said recorder shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of his duties and shall keep the records of said court when requested so to do by said judge; and in case of absence of said judge from the court room, or when the office of judge shall be vacant, the said recorder shall have and exercise all the powers of the judge, and perform all the duties required of said judge by this act, and shall be empowered to sign and issue all papers and processes, in criminal cases, and to do all acts relating to criminal proceedings as fully and with the same effect as the judge could do if he were acting in the premises; and the signature of the recorder, as such, shall be sufficient evidence of his right to act instead of the judge.

—in absence of judge, recorder shall act.

But nothing in this act shall be construed to give the recorder CHAP. 315 authority to act other than in criminal cases. Said recorder —fees.
 shall receive as compensation for his services the same fees allowed by law to trial justices, in criminal cases, except that he shall receive for the trial of an issue one dollar for each day employed, together with ten cents per mile travel to and from the place where said trial shall be held.'
