Chapter 301.

An Act to amend Section six of Chapter one hundred and eleven of the Revised Statutes, as amended by Chapter seventy-three of the Public Laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-one, relating to the recording of Assignments of Wages.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section six of chapter one hundred and eleven of the revised statutes, as amended by chapter seventy-three of the public laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-one, is hereby amended by inserting after the word "wages" in the fourth line, the words 'and if said assignor is commorant in an unorganized place while earning such wages, said assignment shall not be valid against any other person than the parties thereto unless said assignment is recorded by the clerk of the oldest adjoining town, provided there be an incorporated town adjoining such unincorporated place, and if there be no such adjoining town such assignment shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds for the registry district in which said unincorporated place is located,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

Section 6, chapter 111, R. S., as amended by chapter 73, laws, 1891, further amended.

'Section 6. No assignment of wages is valid against any other person than the parties thereto unless such assignment is recorded by the clerk of the city, town or plantation organized for any purpose in which the assignor is commorant while earning such wages; and if said assignor is commorant in an unorganized place while earning such wages said assignment shall not be valid against any other person than the parties thereto unless said assignment is recorded by the clerk of the oldest adjoining town, provided there be an incorporated town adjoining such unincorporated place, and if there be no such adjoining town such assignment shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds for the registry district in which said unincorporated place is located, and the clerk's fee shall be twenty-five cents, and no such assignment of wages shall be valid against the employer unless he has actual notice thereof.'

Assignment of wages, not valid unless recorded, etc.

—where assignment shall be recorded.

—fees.
