Chapter 224,
private
laws, 1891,
repealed.

Chapter two hundred and twenty-four of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-one is hereby repealed.

Approved March 3, 1897.

Chapter 400.

An Act to amend Sections four and six of Chapter three hundred and sixty-three of the Special Laws of eighteen hundred and fifty, relating to the election of City Assessors of the city of Belfast.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section 4,
chapter 363,
special
laws, 1850,
amended.

Sect. 1. Section four of chapter three hundred and sixty-three of the special laws of eighteen hundred and fifty is hereby amended by inserting after the word "agents," in the twenty-fourth line thereof, the words 'except assessors.'

Section 6,
amended.

Sect. 2. Section six of said chapter is hereby amended by striking out of said section the words "The city assessors, who shall be annually appointed by the city council," and inserting instead thereof the following: "The city council shall, on the third Monday of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, elect three city assessors, one for the term of one year, one for the term of two years and one for the term of three years, and shall annually thereafter elect one city assessor for the term of three years; said assessors,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

Election of assessors.

'Sect. 6. The city council shall, on the third Monday of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, elect three city assessors, one for the term of one year, one for the term of two years and one for the term of three years, and shall annually thereafter elect one city assessor for the term of three years; said assessors shall execute and be subject to the same powers, duties and liabilities that the assessors in the several towns in this state may exercise and be subject to, under existing laws; provided, however, that the city council may appoint one person in each ward, whose duty it shall be to furnish the assessors with all necessary information relative to persons and property, taxable in his ward, and who shall be sworn to the faithful performance of his duty. All taxes shall be assessed, apportioned and collected in the manner prescribed by the laws of the state relative to town taxes; provided, however, that it shall and may be lawful for the city council to establish further and additional provisions for the collection thereof.'
