PRIVATE AND SPECIAL LAWS
OF THE
STATE OF MAINE.

1897.

Chapter 461.

An Act in relation to the Bath Military and Naval Orphan Asylum.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Section six of chapter one hundred and sixty-three of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and sixty-six, as amended by chapter four hundred and five of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-three, is hereby amended by striking out all after the word "of" in the seventh line, and inserting in lieu thereof the words 'poor and neglected orphan children residing in this state,' so that said section shall read as follows:

'Sect. 6. Upon the final execution of the purpose herein specified as the object of this incorporation, namely: the support and education of the orphans and half orphans of persons engaged in the service of the United States during the recent rebellion, said asylum shall continue the exercise of its corporate powers as an institution for the education and support of poor and neglected orphan children residing in this state.'

Approved March 17, 1897.

Charter amended.

Institution may continue to exercise powers, and support orphan children of the state.

Chapter 462.

An Act to incorporate the Southport, Boothbay Harbor and Boothbay Telegraph and Telephone Company.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Sect. 1. A. P. Greenleaf, J. S. Maxcy and A. R. Savage, their associates, successors and assigns, are hereby created a body politic, by the name of the Southport, Boothbay Harbor and Boothbay Telegraph and Telephone Company, with all the powers, rights and privileges, and subject to all the duties and obligations granted and prescribed by the general laws of this state, relating to corporations. Said corporation shall have the right to locate, construct, maintain and operate lines of telephone and telegraph between such points as it may determine in the towns of Southport, Boothbay Harbor and Boothbay and the islands therein.
