OF THE
STATE OF MAINE.

1897.

CHAP. 548

Chapter 548.

An Act to amend Section eight of Chapter three hundred nineteen of the Private and Special Laws of eighteen hundred ninety-five, entitled "An Act to incorporate the Somerset Traction Company."

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Charter amended.

Sect. 1. Section eight of chapter three hundred and nineteen of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, entitled "An Act to incorporate the Somerset Traction Company," is hereby amended by adding to said section the words: 'Also the right to lease power and heat in the town of Skowhegan, provided that the poles and appliances erected or used in said Skowhegan by said Somerset Traction Company, its successors or assigns, shall not be used by any company, person, firm or corporation to transmit electricity for lighting purposes,' so that said section shall read as follows:

Authorized to carry on an express business.

—maintain hotels and cottages.

—lease power and heat.

'Sect. 8. It is further authorized to carry on the business of an express company. It may also erect and maintain hotels, cottages and pleasure grounds near and around Hayden lake, provided that the right of taking lands or other property to be used for such last named purposes shall be acquired by purchase only. Also the right to lease power and heat in the said town of Skowhegan, provided that the poles and appliances erected or used in said Skowhegan by said Somerset Traction Company, its successors or assigns, shall not be used by any company, person, firm or corporation to transmit electricity for lighting purposes.'

Sect. 2. This act shall take effect when approved.

Approved March 26, 1897.

Chapter 549.

An Act to incorporate the Hartland Trust and Banking Company.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, as follows:

Corporators.

—corporate name.

Sect. 1. H. W. Stewart, G. M. Lancey, L. H. Goodwin, M. L. Merrill, F. E. Bridgham, N. B. Turner, S. B. Prescott, T. A. Linn, A. W. Miller, G. J. Shaw, R. W. Linn, Walter Moor, P. W. Thompson, or such of them as may by vote accept this charter, with their associates, successors and assigns are hereby made a body corporate and politic, to be known as the Hartland Trust and Banking Company, and as such shall be possessed of all the powers, privileges and immunities and subject to all the duties and obligations conferred on corporations by law.

Sect. 2. The corporation hereby created shall be located at Hartland, Somerset county, Maine.

Location.

Sect. 3. The purposes of said corporation and the business which it may perform, are: first, to receive on deposit, money, coin, bank notes, evidences of debt, accounts of individuals, companies, corporations, municipalities and states, allowing interest thereon, if agreed, or as the by-laws of said corporation may provide; second, to borrow money, to loan money on credits or real estate or personal security, and to negotiate loans and sales for others; third, to own and maintain safe deposit vaults, with boxes, safes and other facilities therein to be rented to other parties for the safe keeping of moneys, securities, stocks, jewelry, plate, valuable papers and documents, and other property susceptible of being deposited therein, and may receive on deposit for safe keeping, property of any kind entrusted to it for that purpose; fourth, to act as agent for issuing, registering and countersigning certificates, bonds, stocks, and all evidences of debt or ownership in property; fifth, to hold by grant, assignment, transfer, devise or bequest, any real or personal property or trusts duly created, and to execute trusts of every description; sixth, to act as assignee, receiver, executor, and no surety shall be necessary upon the bond of the corporation, unless the court or officer approving such bond shall require it; seventh, to do in general all the business that may lawfully be done by a trust and banking company, but said corporation shall not have the power or authority to establish branches.

Purposes.

Sect. 4. The capital stock of said corporation shall not be less than fifty thousand dollars, divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, with the right to increase said capital stock at any time by a vote of the shareholders to any amount not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars. Shall be subject to examination by bank examiner.

—shall have access to books, etc.

—proceedings, when business becomes hazardous to the public.

—shall keep record, which shall be published.

First meeting, how called.

Sect. 15. Said corporation shall be subject to examination by the bank examiner, who shall visit it at least once in every year, and as much oftener as he may deem expedient. At such visits he shall have free access to its vaults, books and papers, and shall thoroughly inspect and examine all the affairs of said corporation, and make such inquiries as may be necessary to ascertain its condition and ability to fulfill all its engagements. If upon examination of said corporation the examiner is of the opinion that its investments are not in accordance with law, or said corporation is insolvent, or its condition is such as to render its further proceedings hazardous to the public or to those having funds in its custody, or is of the opinion that it has exceeded its powers or failed to comply with any of the rules or restrictions provided by law, he shall have such authority and take such action as is provided for in the case of savings banks by chapter forty-seven of the revised statutes. He shall preserve in a permanent form a full record of his proceedings, including a statement of the condition of said corporation. A copy of such statement shall be published by said corporation immediately after the annual examination of the same in some newspaper published where said corporation is established. If no paper is published in the town where said corporation is established, then it shall be published in a newspaper printed in the nearest city or town. The necessary expenses of the bank examiner while engaged in making such examination shall be paid by said corporation.

Sect. 16. Any five of the corporators named in this act may call the first meeting of this corporation by mailing a written notice, signed by all, postage paid, to each of the other corporators, seven days at least before the day of the meeting, naming the time, place and purpose of such meeting, and at such meeting the necessary officers may be chosen, by-laws adopted and any other corporate business transacted.

Sect. 17. This act shall take effect when approved.
